

HOMEWORK

Policy 345.3

Page 1 of 1

A major goal of homework, at any grade level, is to improve the study skills of the student. Homework provides parents and guardians with a meaningful glimpse into what the student is learning. Homework is an important way to foster a positive home-school relationship based upon regular communication and common educational goals. The amount and duration of homework should not exceed the maturity of the student.

Adopted: October 1975

Revised: April 1986

April 1987

August 2000

May 2013