

COMMUNITY RESOURCES

Policy 353

Page 1 of 1

Partnering with community members who have special knowledge and talents strengthens the school and enhances the educational experience of the students. Teachers and administrators are encouraged to seek outside resources in the community to supplement their instruction. Use of community resources is at the discretion of the building principals.

Adopted: April 2013