

TEMPORARY ADMINISTRATIVE ARRANGEMENTS

The District Administrator is responsible for proper administrative arrangements to be made in order for decision-making to function in his/her absence. When the District Administrator is temporarily absent from the school district, established procedures to adequately cover his/her responsibilities should be followed. Specific guidelines regarding temporary administrative assignments shall be established.

Adopted: September 1987

Revised: May 2000